

Students Respond to How to Survive Middle School

Mr. Post you taught me a lot of things. To be myself, to love myself and to be confident and let no one bring me down. You gave me hope and light to follow the right path. Your performing was amazing. You're an amazing guy. I know you're an adult but keep doing you. You took me to a whole new place.

7th grade, Innes Middle School

Your show was outstanding and really entertained me. I have gotten a lot of inspiration from you because this year of middle school has been really hard for me. But because of what I saw it inspired me so much. Thank you!

8th grade, Innes Middle School

I loved your show. It was super funny and inspiring because all those kids that were in the videos were so real/true. You are super amazing, keep up the good work.

8th grade, Indianola Informal

I really enjoyed the show. Normally our field trips aren't very interactive and engaging but I felt this one was. I liked how he introduced comedy to something that's more serious.

7th Grade, Indianola Informal

Thank you so much for showing me how to survive middle school. I feel like I can find a way to come out of my shell and find success. You gave me a memory I will never forget. I'm so grateful I went to the play.

7th grade, Dominion Middle School

I thought the videos were awesome. My favorite part of the videos was the high schoolers reflecting back on bullying. I thought that was really powerful.

8th Grade, Starling Middle School

There were moments where it was very empowering. I isolate myself sometimes and the show taught me to open up to people.

8th Grade, Starling Middle School

He's an inspiration for kids that are the outcasts ... for the kids that are made fun of. Teaching them not to be afraid to stand out and to let their light shine.

7th Grade, Columbus Adventist Academy

I think you're very funny, talented and brave for doing what you do. You inspired me a lot to help kids that are getting bullied. The show you did made me want to grow up and help people and inspire them.

7th grade, Innes Middle School

Students Respond to How to Survive Middle School (Page 2)

The message itself is powerful and relevant. There are kids that doubt themselves but as seen in the show they have their own hidden talents.

8th Grade, Indianola Informal

Thank you for a wonderful, great performance. It was amazing what you could do. The things that the students said on the videos was brilliant. From a simple, awkward middle school student.

7th grade, Dominion Middle School

I know more about how to survive middle school now thanks to you, and to not try to act cool and just to be myself. We all enjoyed and learned more since you came here.

7th grade, Innes Middle School

I feel like it reintroduced us to seeing other people's points of view and how they feel inside and you can treat others the way you want to be treated.

8th Grade, Starling Middle School

You really inspired me to help kids when I get older like you did. You make me feel better about myself and I hope you can inspire more kids that are bullied to stop so kids don't hurt themselves.

6th grade, Indianola Informal

I think it would be good for parents to see this with their kids because it would let parents see what their kids are going through in middle school.

8th Grade, Columbus Adventist Academy

Your tricks were very cool and clever! You're also a very funny person. The videos and your words made me feel happy. A lot of people have been bullied or failed but there is someone who is there for them.

6th grade, Innes Middle School

I liked the name how to survive middle school. I get bullied a lot in school because of my look. I loved your show!

6th grade, Innes Middle School